(3) Nothing in this Act shall preclude

- (a) a deposit taking licensee;
- (b) a credit union; or
- (c) an insurance company,

from pro rating and paying the tax on a more frequent basis.

Penalty

9. A deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company that fails to pay the tax by the dates specified in section 8(1), shall pay to the Commissioner

- (a) the tax payable; and
- (b) a penalty, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of tax that was due and unpaid at that date, or $20,000 whichever is greater.

Accounts of records

10.(1) A deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company shall keep, in Barbados, records and books of account in such form and containing such information as will allow the tax payable under this Act to be determined.

(2) The Commissioner may require a deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company that fails to comply with subsection (1) to keep such records and books of account as the Commissioner specifies, and the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company shall keep the records and books of account so specified.

(3) A deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company, required by this section to keep records and books of account, shall retain all records and books of account and every document or record necessary to verify the records and books of account until the Commissioner gives permission, in writing, for the disposal of that document or record.

Audit and ancillary powers

11. For the purpose of enforcing this Act, the powers conferred by section 76 of the Income Tax Act, Cap. 73 on the Commissioner are exercisable by the Commissioner in relation to the premises occupied by a deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company and accordingly, section 76 of the Income Tax Act, shall be construed mutatis mutandis for the purpose of giving the necessary effect to this Act.

Procedure on default

12.(1) Where a deposit taking licensee fails to make payment as required by this Act, the Commissioner shall assess the tax payable by the deposit taking licensee on the basis of the contents of a certified statement, submitted to him by the Central Bank.

(2) Where a credit union or an insurance company fails to make payment as required by this Act, the Commissioner shall assess the tax payable by the credit union or insurance company on the basis of the contents of a certified statement, submitted to him by the Financial Services Commission.

Unpaid tax certificates

13.(1) Where tax payable under this Act remains unpaid for a period of 30 days from the date on which payment should have been made, the amount of the tax may be certified, in relation to the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company, by the Commissioner in a certificate called an unpaid tax certificate.

(2) An unpaid tax certificate may be filed by the Commissioner in the High Court or in a magistrates' court for District "A" and shall be registered in the court in which it is filed.

(3) A certificate referred to in subsection (2) has, after the expiry of a period of 7 days from the date on which it is filed and registered, the same force and effect as a judgement of the court in which it is registered in favour of the Crown against the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company, named in the certificate, for the amount specified in the certificate and also for

- (a) interest on that amount at the rate of 1.5 per cent per month calculated for each month on the unpaid balance of the tax; and
- (b) the reasonable costs and charges attendant upon the registration of the certificate.

(4) All proceedings may be taken on an unpaid tax certificate and the certificate may be enforced as if it were a judgement of the court in which it is registered.

(5) Where an unpaid certificate is filed by the Commissioner in the High Court or in a magistrates' court for District "A", the Commissioner shall immediately deliver a copy of the certificate to the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company to which the certificate relates and if the copy of the certificate is not delivered within 7 days from the date of filing subsections (3) and (4) shall cease to have effect in respect of the certificate.

Refunds

14.(1) Subject to subsection (2), where

- (a) an amount paid, by a deposit taking licensee, a credit union or an insurance company, as tax or interest is in excess of the amount that ought to have been paid; and
- (b) the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company applies to the Commissioner, in writing, for a refund of the excess, the Commissioner shall apply the amount of the excess for meeting any outstanding liability of that deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company under this Act and then pay over to the deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company the balance, if any.

(2) An application for a refund shall not be considered unless the application is made before the expiration of a period of one year from the date on which the payment was made.

(3) A refund under this section shall be made by the Commissioner and shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

Expiration of tax

15. No tax shall be levied under this Act in respect of a deposit taking licensee, credit union or insurance company for any period after 31st March, 2016.

Commencement

16. This Act shall be deemed to have come into operation in respect of

- (a) a deposit taking licensee, on the 1st June, 2014; and
- (b) a credit union or an insurance company, on the 1st July, 2014.
