PART II

Establishment, Constitution and Status of the Corporation

4. (1) For the purposes of this Act, there is hereby established a Corporation to be known as the National Housing Corporation to which the provisions of section 21 of the Interpretation Act shall apply.

Establishment of Corporation.
Cap. 1.

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect with respect to the constitution of the Corporation and otherwise in relation thereto.

First
Schedule.

5. The Corporation shall pay to each member, in respect of his office as such, such remuneration and allowances, if any, as the Minister determines, and to the chairman in respect of his office as such, in addition to any remuneration or allowances to which he may be entitled in respect of his office as member, such remuneration and allowances, if any, as the Minister determines.

Remuneration of members.

5A. (1) A member of the Corporation shall not act as a delegate of any commercial, financial, agricultural, industrial or other interests, or receive or accept directions therefrom in respect of duties to be performed under this Act. Conflict of interest.
1980-45.

(2) Without prejudice to section 6, all members shall, at the first meeting of the Corporation, submit to the Corporation a full written disclosure of any commercial, financial, agricultural, industrial or other interests with which they may at any time, whether directly or indirectly, be connected.

(3) No member, nor any officer or employee of the Corporation, shall accept any gift or advantage for himself, or, in his behalf, for persons with whom he may have family, business or financial connections.

6. (1) Subject to this section, if a member is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Corporation, he shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Corporation. Disclosure by members of interest.

(2) In the case of a proposed contract the declaration required by this section shall be made

- (a) at the meeting of the Corporation at which the contract is first taken into consideration; or
- (b) if such member was not at the date of the meeting interested in the proposed contract, at the next meeting of the Corporation held after he became so interested.

(3) Where a member becomes interested in a contract with the Corporation after it is made, the declaration shall be made at the first meeting of the Corporation held after the member acquires such interest.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), for the purposes of this section where a general notice given to members of the Corporation by a member that he is a shareholder of a company or member of a firm with which, after the date of the notice, the Corporation may enter into a contract, that notice shall be deemed to be sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract made with that company or firm.

(5) The notice given under subsection (4) shall have no effect unless it is given either at a meeting of the Corporation or the member takes reasonable steps to ensure that it is brought up and read at the meeting of the Corporation held immediately after it is given.

(6) A member who has interest in any contract or arrangement with the Corporation

(a) shall not vote in respect of that contract or arrangement, and if he does vote in contravention of this subsection, his vote shall not be counted; and

(b) shall not be counted in the quorum present on the consideration of such contract or arrangement.

(7) A person who contravenes this section or section 5A is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5 000 or imprisonment for 12 months, or to both.

(8) Where a person convicted under subsection (7) is a member, that conviction disqualifies him from holding office as a member of the Corporation.

Restriction of powers of Corporation.

7. Notwithstanding the powers conferred on the Corporation by section 5, the Corporation shall not without the prior approval of the Minister 1973-55.

(a) assign any salary in excess of such sum as the Minister determines and notifies in writing to the Corporation to any post of the staff of the Corporation;

(b) appoint any person to a post on the staff of the Corporation to which a salary is assigned by the Minister under paragraph (a);

(c) make any provision for the payment of pensions, gratuities or other like benefits to any officer or servant of the Corporation or to others by reference to their services to the Corporation.

Protection
of Corporation and its members.

8. No act done or proceedings taken under this Act shall be questioned on the grounds of

(a) the existence of any vacancy in the membership of, or any defect in the constitution of the Corporation;

(b) the contravention by a member of any of the provisions of section 6; or

- (c) any omission, defect or irregularity not affecting the merits of the case.

PART III

Functions of the Corporation

9. The functions of the Corporation shall be report.

- (a) an account of its transactions throughout the preceding financial year in such detail as the Minister directs; and
  - (b) a statement of the accounts of the Corporation audited under section 16.
- (2) A copy of the report together with a copy of the auditor's report shall be laid before Parliament.

PART V

Contracts for Sale of Land by the Corporation

Sale of land
by the Corporation.
Second
Schedule.
1980-45.

17A. (1) Where the Corporation enters into a contract to sell land it shall make the conveyance thereof in the Form prescribed by the Second Schedule or as near thereto as the Corporation's attorney-at-law determines.

Cap. 236.

(2) A conveyance made under the authority of and in the Form prescribed under subsection (1) shall vest a good and marketable title in the purchaser notwithstanding that he has not investigated the title of the Corporation for the period of years required by section 50 of the Property Act.

Cap. 236.

(3) Any person who has an interest in the land sold by the Corporation under this section which was not disclosed to the purchaser but which he would have discovered had he investigated the title of the Corporation for the period of years required by the Property Act shall not be entitled to enforce that interest against the land but may apply in writing to the Corporation for compensation for its loss.

(4) No application for the recovery of compensation may be made under this section where more than 3 years have elapsed since the applicant knowingly suffered the loss.

(5) No compensation shall be payable under this section to any person who has himself caused or substantially contributed to the loss by his fraud or negligence or who derives title (otherwise than as a bona fide purchaser for value) from such a person.

(6) Where compensation is awarded in respect of the loss it shall not exceed the value of the interest at the time of the sale by the Corporation.

(7) An appeal lies to the High Court against the refusal of the Corporation to award compensation or against the amount of an award.

(8) Notwithstanding section 48 of the Property Act, a stipulation in a contract by the Corporation's attorney-at-law in relation to the completion of a purchase under this Act or any mortgage connected therewith is valid.

Cap. 236.

17B. Notwithstanding section 35 of the Legal Profession Act Fees, or anything contained in any other enactment, the Attorney- General may, after consultation with the Minister and the Judicial Advisory Council, by order, prescribe the fees payable in respect of services rendered by the Corporation or an attorney-at-law in connection with any sale or mortgage referred to in section 17A. Cap. 370A.

PART VI

Transitional Provisions

18.—19. *Spent.

20. (1) The Governor-General may by order, subject to negative resolution, declare any office in the service of the Corporation to be a pensionable office. Pensions.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall have effect as if it were an order made under section 2 (1) of the Pensions Act. Cap. 25.

(3) In determining for the purposes of the Pensions Act and the Pensions Regulations, 1947, the qualifying service or pensionable service of any officer of the Corporation

(a) holding at the commencement of an order made under subsection (1) an office specified in the order; or

(b) appointed to an office specified in an order made under subsection (1) after the commencement of the order, any period of continuous service served by the officer with the Corporation in such office, whether or not that service was prior or subsequent to the commencement of the order, may be taken into account, and for the purpose of determining whether or not that period of service is to be treated as continuous service, regard shall be had to the Pensions Regulations, 1947.

(4) All service which by virtue of subsection (3) may be taken into account as qualifying service or pensionable service of an officer of the Corporation by whom the service was served shall for the purposes of the Pensions Act and the Pensions Regulations, 1947, be deemed to be service in a civil capacity under the Crown entitling the officer, subject to that Act and those regulations, to a pension or gratuity or to a pension and gratuity under and in accordance with that Act and those regulations.

Act
1947-20.

(5) For the purposes of this section

- (a) “qualifying service” and “pensionable service” have respectively the meanings assigned to them by regulation 2 of the Pensions Regulations, 1947; and
- (b) any period of continuous service with the Housing Authority or the Urban Development Corporation shall be deemed to be service with the Corporation.

Payments in aid of pensions.

21. The Corporation shall in respect of every financial year on the demand of the Accountant-General pay out of the funds of the Corporation into the Consolidated Fund in aid of the pensions of officers of the Corporation a sum equal to 25 percent of the total sum of the salaries paid in that financial year or any part thereof to officers of the Corporation serving in any offices specified in an order made under section 20(1).

1980-45.
